Ransom & Randolph Promotes Mark Ries to North American Sales Manager, Jewelry & Dental Lab

Maumee, Ohio – November 1, 2026 – Ransom & Randolph (R&R) has promoted Mark Ries to North American Sales Manager, Jewelry & Dental Lab, effective November 1, 2026. In this role, Ries will lead jewelry and dental lab sales across North America.

The new role reflects R&R's continued growth in the jewelry and dental lab markets. Building on the company's long history in both segments and its recent acquisitions of Talladium and ETI Empire Direct, R&R's U.S. strategy calls for dedicated sales leadership.

During his three years with R&R, Ries has taken on increasing responsibility across markets, territories, and technologies. He has overseen the Southeast region with a focus on growing jewelry and dental sales, partnered with a major dental distributor to expand sales and product offerings, and used his deep industry knowledge and relationship-building skills to secure significant contracts for R&R's dental lab business.

Before joining R&R, Ries spent 14 years with Dentsply Sirona's lab business and three years with Henry Schein/Zahn.
